

What is a Lock-In?

Friday the 6th of November 2009

The students will arrive at Fort Gratiot at 8:00pm and must be promptly picked up at 8:00am Saturday morning.

They will need to bring:

1. Sleeping bag, pillows, or blankets
2. Foods such as pop, chips, candy, etc.
3. Games, such as Monopoly, Scrabble, or anything else they enjoy playing
4. One can good for donation to the needy
5. $6.00 to pay for midnight pizza and janitorial costs
6. Student ID card

What will they be doing?

They might decide to:

- Watch the “G” rated videos
- Play basketball
- Play board games
- Or to just talk all night long

The students will be sleeping as follows:

Girls in the Band room

Boys in the Cafeteria

All loud activities will be in the gym and all quiet activities will be in the media center. The sleeping rooms are reserved for sleeping only.

Rules:

1. All students must stay all night unless I have written notification from parents.
2. Absolutely no non-band students
3. Everyone must be kind and courteous to all, especially our parents who have given up an evening so that we can have this Lock-In.
4. Students will not be allowed to go to their lockers.
5. You are responsible for your own property, so if you don't want to carry it around all night with you, and you can't afford to loose it, then don't bring it.
6. Have fun!

We need parents to help, please have your child sign you up for a four hour shift. 8:00pm or 12:00midnight or 4:00am
